Prof. George A. Bermann, Columbia Law School
Jean Monnet Professor of EU Law, Walter Gellhorn Professor of Law
Director, Center for International Commercial and Investment Arbitration

EFILA is honoured that Prof. George A. Bermann, a highly distinguished expert in EU law and investment law, will deliver the 4th Annual EFILA Lecture.

This Lecture will continue the successful series of Annual EFILA Lectures, which have been previously delivered by Christopher Greenwood (2017), Johnny Veeder (2016) and Sophie Nappert (2015).

Prof. George A. Bermann has a J.D. and a B.A. from Yale University and an LL.M. from Columbia Law School. He holds honorary degrees from the Universities of Fribourg in Switzerland, Versailles-St. Quentin in France and Universidad César Vallejo in Peru. He is an affiliated faculty member of the School of Law of Sciences Po in Paris and the MIDS Masters Program in International Dispute Settlement in Geneva. He is also a visiting professor at the Georgetown Law Center. At the Law School, he founded both the European Legal Studies Center and the Columbia Journal of European Law.

Prof. Bermann is an active international arbitrator in commercial and investment disputes; chief reporter of the ALI's Restatement of the U.S. Law of International Commercial Arbitration; co-author of the UNCITRAL Guide to the New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards; chair of the Global Advisory Board of the New York International Arbitration Center (NYIAC); co-editor-in-chief of the American Review of International Arbitration; and founding member of the governing body of the ICC Court of Arbitration and a member of its standing committee.

He has been a visiting scholar at the European Commission Legal Service in Brussels; the French Conseil d'Etat; the Max Planck Institute for Foreign Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg, Germany; and Princeton University's Center for International Studies.
