7TH ANNUAL EFILA LECTURE

ANNETTE MAGNUSSON

Climate Change Counsel

EFILA is honoured that Annette Magnusson, a highly distinguished and innovative lawyer in international arbitration law and climate change, will deliver the 7th Annual EFILA Lecture.

This Lecture will continue the successful series of Annual EFILA Lectures, which have been previously delivered by Prof. Loukas Mistelis (2020), Laurence Boisson de Chazournes (2019), George A. Bermann (2018), Christopher Greenwood (2017), Johnny Veeder (2016) and Sophie Nappert (2015).

Annette's background is in leadership, innovation and policy advocacy. She was Secretary General of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce (SCC) between 2010 and 2021 and has more than 20 years' experience of international law, including from global law firms. She is the founder of the crowdsourcing initiative Stockholm Treaty Lab, which seeks to use international law to promote green investments, and was shortlisted for the Financial Times Innovative Lawyers Award in 2017. Annette is a frequent speaker on arbitration and climate change, and has been listed as a Thought Leader and Global Leader in Who's Who Legal, and "a thought leader and global star" by Global Arbitration Review. Annette also accepts appointments to sit as an arbitrator.
